

Florence

- God I love the soundtrack
  - I could sit on the loading screen for ages
- Artstyle is gorgeous
- Starts depiction of a normal mundane life. Ch 1 allows you to like posts, do work and live a boring normal life like you already do. It's... quiet?
- Very convenient control guide; forgot this isn't the most desktop friendly; originally played on Switch & iOS, then macOS to revisit for my review
- The art & crafts mini game was too much fun
  - Song is gorgeous. One of my favorites
- Art mini-game goes to basic math instead
  - Basically loses all friends
  - Focuses on uni, work, et al.
  - ~~Hits too close to home~~ haha
  - It's cool seeing your own creation in-game
- Next ch. starts dope; a remix is a must
- Meet love interest; ~~artist~~ MC reminded of love for music and is drawn. Meet over it

ACT II; aptly on a new page

- A cool Lis like image focus mini game for some progression
- We eat mad shit looking at crush
- Music is lovely. Easily another favorite
- Yellow is embarrassing in Sims
- Irish is met. Love animal TM
- Sucky one mini-game unplayable on PC who controller it seem. Mouse wouldn't work for it. Good thing I have a controller haha.
- "Puzzles" get easier & easier
  - Shows growth in relationship and closeness. The eye is love growing TM
- Naturally, they kiss

ACT III; aptly not.

- Learn Irish wants to be famous - shows his dream
- We learn a love for art w' a dream
- Irish sets motivated to go to music academy
- We draw again
- We go on very nice dates

ACT IV ; new part bich

- These mouse mini-games are horrific on Mac holy shi -
- First argument though. Thank you game for mercy - I know where the game pieces become more judged as it continues
- Literally ignored argument because it does not work well
- I hate these speech bubbles bro
- Cooking heals everything because food is good
- I pause these notes to say that my dinner of a beef stir-fry was fire and was probably the reason I started doing these things for fun. Journalism go bro or something
- (cursor is) picking?
- Mouse moving game is fun
- Art supplies gift is cute
- (h. 11) name sucks cause' yknow it's end
- Job mini game plays itself
- Drawings are always dope
- What a cute couple

Said no one ever; ACT V

- Honey moon period is over
- Work sucks, movie sucks, it all sucks
- Still hate these cursor' mini games
- Love died off big time
- Movie isn't as enjoyable when it's your study

- Motivation to not do a B.S. & Bfa
- Art gift is forgotten

Ch 14; I give up because mini game
Blochy regain point
Ch 14 isn't even a puzzle but it's so hard to try and move the pieces

- Naturally both sides are sad and disconnected

- Can't reconnect bed (~~stays~~ sad)

- Drift mini-game worked, oddly enough

Ch 15 — I stole his <sup>crap</sup> Imao

- Not intended for mac OS, I don't think

- Still a great game knowing other platforms work fine

- Still a shame; shouldn't ship
low quality

Act VI - almost done

- Everywhere we go we're reminded of how we're alone
- We learn to let go of truth
- ↳ We try to at least
- We draw again
- We ~~use~~ grow
- We make a living
- We move on
- We accept and move forward

Florence

- Covered in paint
- Happy

— Fin —

P.S. Closing song is a favourite too.
